Pro-Active Components for Small Business & Entrepreneurs

Market Research

Every business should know their customers, competitors, stability of their suppliers and a whole set of other market research items. Market research is particularly important to growth-oriented ventures.

Competitiveness Planning

A business plan is the stock and trade of business planning, but in today's environment, there is a need for sophisticated, competitiveness planning that can enable entrepreneurs to define market niches and competitiveness advantages. A financial plan should match up to the business plan.

Business Services

Every venture needs access to business services ranging from insurance to banking. But entrepreneur's ventures need business service partners who are willing to help grow a future larger customer. This is more than a networked transaction, but a growth strategy for both parties.

Human Talent

A skilled and motivated workforce is very important to all businesses. Entrepreneurial ventures have these needs, but also specialized talent critical for increased competitiveness and growth.

Business Coaching

Coaching is the cornerstone of an entrepreneur development system. Business coaches provide the high value and high touch engagement that helps business leaders actively engage in growing a better business versus just running their venture.

Capital Access

Access to the right kinds of capital is important to any venture, but for entrepreneurs there are unique capital needs such as seed and venture capital.

Customized Technical Assistance

Entrepreneurial businesses need access to specialized expertise and customized technical assistance ranging from exporting to lean manufacturing to systems development to social media marketing.

Growth Planning

Growth planning including business transition is a unique resource that growth-oriented and high growth potential ventures must have. Building a smart strategy to enable rapid growth requires high end assistance.

Other Entrepreneurs - Networking

Entrepreneurs need regular contact and engagement with other entrepreneurs through networking events, and mentoring relationships. Peer helping peer is the magic bullet of high performing growth entrepreneurs.
